Brief Description of Institution

An-Najah National University (ANNU), founded in 1977 in Nablus, Palestine, is one of the country's leading comprehensive higher education institutions. The University offers a broad portfolio of undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs spanning the sciences, engineering, medicine and health sciences, humanities, social sciences, business, law, and the arts. ANNU combines high-quality teaching with impactful scientific research, innovation, entrepreneurship, and community engagement through its specialized research centers, University Hospital, and Innovation Park. With strong regional and international partnerships, the University promotes knowledge exchange, student and staff mobility, and interdisciplinary collaboration. ANNU is also committed to sustainability, social responsibility, inclusion, and advancing the UN Sustainable Development Goals, while serving as a key contributor to Palestinian development and global academic cooperation.
