

An- Najah National University

Free Drinking Water

An-Najah National University is committed to ensuring the well-being of its students, staff, and visitors by providing free access to clean drinking water across its campuses. The university has installed 149 drinking water fountains and dispensers in key areas, including all academic buildings and public area to ensure that students and staff have easy access to fresh water throughout the day.

Distribution of Free Water Drinking for Each Campus

Distribution of Free Water Drinking in University Buildings

Example of Free Water Drinking at the University